When the heart sets the pace

“Every thought is worth writing down” is Schneider’s leitmotif. Singer-Songwriter Toni Mogens even makes his thoughts resound.

The rhythm in the leg. The sweat on the forehead. Hands up. Cheer, clap and sing along. How much we all missed this! Music only unfolds its full power on stage and casts its spell on us. It sometimes puts us in high spirits, at other times it moves us to tears. In 2020, Corona had cast a dark shadow over the event industry – but the more is the joy that new talents and old familiar faces have recaptured the big and small live stage. One of them who is also immensely looking forward to playing in front of an audience again: the up-and-coming German pop artist Toni Mogens.

"Music is a way for me to make others feel good. I am grateful that I just have to put my thoughts down on paper", the Karlsruhe native reveals to us. His songs fascinate with a special magic, that develops between touching lyrics and catchy melodies. Each of his pieces resembles an airy ribbon, with which he connects with every single person in the audience. The best feeling for the 25-year-old is that all his listeners find themselves in his songs with their very own story.

But let's rewind a few years to the Abi (graduation) prom in the Badnerland hall Karlsruhe-Neureut in 2015. Toni performs his own song entitled "Ich bin raus! (I'm out now)" for the first time on the occasion of his graduation. But with that, he was suddenly in: Being on stage, living from his music – would it be great, or wouldn't it? But first I'd rather do something solid to earn a living. But after two semesters of study to become a teacher, it became clear: My heart beats for music. And only for music.

With my firstself
written song –
that's how it all began.

With the broad laugh and the relaxed demeanour, you almost forget that Toni has to compete as a musician in a challenging industry. An incredible number of young musicians are competing for the attention of producers, record labels and radio stations at the same time, all trying not to get lost in the flood of talent on streaming platforms, Instagram, YouTube and the like. If you want to survive here you have to believe strongly in yourself. Many musicians can tell their own tales of disappointment, unfulfilled expectations and projects that have gone wrong. In the bright stage light, the audience often doesn't even think about how much struggle, tireless work and stamina this job requires behind the scenes.

On the one hand being an emotionally driven musician, on the other hand being a rational entrepreneur who has to make sure that everything pays off: a real balancing act. "Doubt, euphoria, that's an alternating game. But when I finally decided on music, it was one thing above all: Liberating", Toni describes his unusual job today. He was supported by his environment, his family and his friends. Not only have they all always encouraged him, but they are also a source of inspiration – just like the whole life around him.

My inspiration?
Friends and family.
Undertake a lot and also live.”

Going out, experiencing new things, throwing myself into life and exchanging a lot with people: Toni processes all his personal experiences and encounters in his songs. But how does a feeling, an inspiration end up becoming a whole song? "In songwriting there are no rules. For me it often starts with a single sentence that gets me – where I just get a lot of ideas just from that," Toni tells us. It may already have a melody in it, further words come together to form a whole text, a beautiful interlude connects – piece by piece, Toni composes his songs with piano or guitar. And if ever things don't go so well with creativity? "You can't force things, and you mustn't look for it too hard", the musician knows from experience. When there is a creative void in his head, he likes to lace up his running shoes and go jogging. He has already written many songs in the vineyards around his home.

And what does it sound like in the end? His texts: Personal, accessible and sympathetic. His sound: positive, carefree and catchy. His enthusiasm: Simply contagious. This authenticity distinguishes the young singer-songwriter. In a world of finely curated Instagram accounts of other musicians this is refreshingly different. Instead of hiding behind a protective wall of perfection and producing music that is as flawless a façade as the exterior of many stars, the current double album warms the heart with both humanity and empathy.

When something is incredibly fun, then it also feels less like work.

No secure job, no fixed salary, be completely on your own in self-employment: The life of musicians is accompanied by many uncertainties. But Toni does not regret his decision: "I always wanted to do something where my heart was in it". He appreciates the fun of his work and the freedom to live out his creativity. The happy-go-lucky Baden native does not let occasional career setbacks drag him down. "As a creative person, I don't always have everything planned out completely. If you mispaint a line, you have to simply draw a new one on top of it. You can always go on".

In the end, doing something that makes you happy – that is the guiding principle that Toni follows. When he takes pen and paper in hand and writes down his thoughts, he later moves many people in the audience with his songs. It is quite an art to leave traces in the memory of others. Toni Mogens is one of those who make it.

Achieve more together

Dear readers,

Climate change, crises and political conflicts: In such turbulent times, it is solidarity and cooperation that make a society strong. As a company, we also want to make our contribution to this. In the spirit of securing the location and sustainability, we have therefore demolished old buildings in need of renovation at our site in Tennenbronn and invested in a new automated small parts warehouse instead of building everything from scratch on a greenfield site and thus sealing large areas of land. We are also not slackening in our efforts to gradually make our entire product range, from products to packaging, even more environmentally friendly. There is no shortage of new ideas, as evidenced, for example, by the Twinmarker 040, which won the Red Dot Design Award. What is the basis for all this success? A good cooperation between our team. Singer-songwriter Toni Mogens also knows how important trusting relationships and reliable connections are: With his story, he reveals to us how interpersonal relationships inspire him again and again.

Sustainability in practice

Our production sites in Germany, specifically in the Black Forest and the Harz Mountains. This untouched nature with its biodiversity is in front of our eyes every day and we are therefore consciously committed to its protection. Another step towards resource conservation: As of this year, the internal ink reservoirs of our best-selling Maxx 130/133 markers and the popular Job highlighter model are made entirely from recycled fibres. But we also think beyond our products: For example, more and more product packaging is being converted to single-material solutions made of cardboard, and any associated plastic components are being manufactured step by step from recycled material. We are the only writing instrument manufacturer to be certified at all our production sites according to the world's most demanding environmental management system EMAS of the European Union. Join us on our journey: #theschneiderway

Certified by EMAS since 1998

Where environmental protection begins? In front of the door.

Don't just talk about it, get actively involved: Sustainability is not an empty phrase at Schneider. For over 20 years, we have been committed to continuously reducing our company's CO<sub>2</sub> emissions through investments in all areas. However, the commitment extends beyond the actual product range: With campaigns such as a collection of used mobile phones, where discarded devices can be handed in, or our participation in the "Black Forest CleanUp Days", we are also constantly looking for new ways to actively contribute to environmental protection and the good of society, both as a company and as individuals.

First choice

Was the shirt fairly made? Is there a grocery shop nearby that offers packaging-free goods? Do these vegetables come from the region? More and more people are asking themselves these and similar questions when shopping. Conscious consumption no longer has anything to do with abstinence. With the use of environmentally friendly materials, production "Made in Germany", refill options and more, Schneider is also committed to a mindful use of resources and the environment – without compromising on the writing sensation. It has never been easier to do something good with individual purchasing decisions.

The “excellent Schneider refill”*

Everybody was talking about Schneider ballpoint pen refills in the 1950s and 60s when the company's advertising slogan was "Die gute Schneider Mine" ("The excellent Schneider refill"). Replacing an empty refill is very easy: At that time, this was a new development; however, the concept has remained successful until today. Excellent "Made in Germany" quality and constant innovations, such as Viscoglide® technology, extend the service life of a writing instrument in the blink of an eye – a small investment for a more sustainable future for everyone.

*Did you know? There are Schneider refills for gel pens (page 58), ballpoint pens (from page 59), rollerball pens (page 128) and fineliners (page 142).

Tip: the soft-gliding Slider 755*

Premium quality in large format

The Viscoglide® technology ensures a flowing, silky writing sensation, even for a long time thanks to the giant refill. But performance is not everything, which is why the refill is also produced CO<sub>2</sub>-neutrally.

Waterproof ink

Light resistant, water resistant, quick drying, resistant to smudging and erasing and more: The refill complies with the ISO 12757-2 standard and is therefore waterproof.

Permanently clean writing

Smearing and smudging? No longer an issue with quality made by Schneider. The high-precision, wear-resistant stainless steel tip and the adjusted paste ensure pleasant and clean writing.

A precious treasure: our memories

The last exam didn't go so well, there was a fight with dad or a little thing made us laugh so hard: A very personal world can flourish between two book covers. There is room for all the small and big worries, moments of happiness, dreams and wishes that move us. Writing all these things down means preserving them – as little treasures of our memory.

Creative without pressure

Appointments, tasks, picking up something here, stopping by there: The calendar is often full, the to-do list long. Life in the fast lane takes a lot of energy. It is therefore all the more important to recharge your batteries. How relaxing it can be to simply escape the hustle and bustle of everyday life. Stroll through the city alone or together, just stay where it's nice. The eyes wander, while the pen walks on the paper in urban sketching. Once your thoughts have idle time, your head is ready for new challenges again.

Sometimes it takes nothing more than a sketchbook and pens to switch off mentally.

With its wide colour spectrum and slim, ergonomically shaped triangular barrel, the Line-Up is the ideal companion for creative professionals. (More on page 143)

Highlighting, marking, calligraphing: Highlighters
are real all-rounders.

New momentum for old signs

---

Whether in the office, at school or reading in your free time: What we highlight with a highlighter remains in the memory. But there is much more to the highlighters in bright colours: You can add even more character to any handwriting. Because the chisel tip with one wide and one narrow side allows a great effect: Keeping the position of the pen in the hand unchanged creates an exciting alternation between thin and thick strokes. The line width of 1 and 5 millimetres is just right for creating large-format calligraphy artworks.

Colours are ideal for structuring processes and workflows.

Creative solutions instead of black-and-white thinking

The reality of our lives is becoming more and more complex. Those who can react flexibly and agilely are able to assert themselves in the long run. This requires systems and processes to be adapted again and again depending on the situation. Markers in different colours are an excellent tool for thinking through and optimising structures at the same time. This is how teams remain successful across the board.

Markers

Strong and colour intensive: Thanks to the innovative cap-off ink, the whiteboard- and flipchart-marker Maxx 290 does not run dry even if the cap is removed for two days.

Maxx 249 Money Checker

Money checker

- Detects forged notes which are printed on normal, starch-based paper
- Genuine note = ink vanishes completely or leaves a clear mark
- A potential forged note = the ink will turn into a brown to grey colour
- The mark will disappear on a non-starch-based paper
- For added security, a banknote testing device should also be used

This overview provides a rough collection of properties and applications of our markers. In individual cases we cannot guarantee the accuracy of promised features, since many of the technical parameters are beyond our control. For special applications that do not meet the standard according to usage (eg office, school, home, hobby), please ask for the most appropriate solution. In principle, for a good grip on (smooth) surfaces, a clean dry surface is necessary.

Moments for eternity

Quickly capturing fleeting moments in a few strokes: Rapid sketches have a very special magic. Perfection is not the ultimate goal, but to capture one's own observations on paper in all their vividness. Thanks to the refillable mechanical pencils, there is no end to the fun of drawing. And if a line does go wrong nevertheless? Does not matter, this is quickly corrected with the integrated erasers.

Power package: Colour, courage & positive vibes

Be yourself without doubts! With her works, the Hungarian illustrator Andi makes a colourful statement for more courage and creativity.

MY TARGET: INSPIRE, ENCOURAGE & STRENGTHEN OTHERS.

"You really think you can do that?": A short question, but the aftermath of it can be great. The Hungarian illustrator Andi knows the feeling well when one's own abilities are questioned by others. But what to do about it? Do not let these people discourage you! Every creative person knows this feeling of insecurity – whether what you create with pen, paper, canvas & co. is good. But "good" or "bad" are not the categories that are decisive here. It's all about having a good time. To express yourself. To express your own creativity. Discovering a new facet of yourself.

Of course there are those moments when you feel quite small in the world – but with colour, shapes and encouraging statements you can really push your self-confidence again! For Andi, creativity is a way to free yourself – free from bad experiences and negative thoughts. In her illustrations, she therefore likes to express herself in a brightly coloured, lively and unconventional way. In this way, she wants to give life colour and her illustrations a deeper significance. But she no longer allows herself to be pushed into certain patterns of behaviour by others. And more: She encourages others – especially other young women – to break with stereotypes.

Andi used to have people around her who were not really friends. She often scrolled through the social media channels of others who all seemed to be living the perfect life. And what about your own self-esteem? It didn't do it any good. Andi realized: "The most important thing is to be surrounded by honest people. They are like an anchor that gives you support so that you don't drift away". They helped her to recognise her own strengths, encouraged her to live out her creativity and supported her to believe in herself. Today, this gives her the necessary power to inspire others with her positive attitude.

The 26-year-old is happy to be able to make a difference with her work: that she can brighten the day for others. And that thanks to her illustrations they feel better, more self-confident, more self-assured and stronger. She is convinced that everyone can create wonderful things. "Being creative gives you the chance to get to know yourself better. To have fun, to find happiness within yourself," Andi tells us. Go at your own pace, develop your own style, find your own creative expression: Are you ready for your own journey with the Makers Line?

ACRYLIC MARKERS

Paint-It 310/320/330

Optimised for almost any surface

Wood, metal, paper, cardboard, stone or plastic:
Whatever you are currently designing, decorating or upgrading, the acrylic marker can handle just about anything. And with it you can paint on different materials in 18 wonderfully intense and highly opaque colours. If you seal your artwork with clear varnish at the end, the colour will withstand even the harshest weather conditions.

CHROME MARKERS

Paint-It 060/061

Interesting mirror effects
for many surfaces

Mirror on the wall ... or on the flower pot, the window or picture frame or the invitation card! The exceptionally high gloss level of the chrome marker creates a unique WOW effect – especially on dark, non-absorbent surfaces. The highly pigmented ink dries quickly and provides a clean and homogeneous colour application. The round tip in sizes 0.8 millimetres and 2 millimetres makes the chrome marker the shining star for many DIY applications.

CHALK MARKERS Maxx 260 / 265

Easy to apply –
remove without residue

Turn windows into colourful artworks, write your shopping list for the week on the chalkboard in the kitchen or leave little notes on the glass door in the flat share. And the best part of it? Chalk marker ink can be wiped off easily: Just take a moist cloth and wipe them away – no streaks or discolouration will remain on the surface. You'll be ready for something new in no time!

HIGHLIGHTERS Job

Maximum luminosity in two line widths

Small in size, big in effect: With its large ink reservoir, the Job can highlight over 15,000 words. Dates, text passages, great things from your everyday life? You can use it to highlight everything that is important to you. Thanks to its chisel tip, the highlighter is also ideal for calligraphy – whether in bright neon shades or delicate pastel nuances. It's easy to get your creativity going!

ROLLERBALL One Business

With ultra-smooth tip and Super-Flow-System

Fingers quickly dart across the touchscreen when typing a message. What is lost equally quickly? The individuality. Small notes for family, colleagues or friends, on the other hand, make faces shine even brighter than any smartphone display. Extra Class: Thanks to the super soft tip, the pen glides across the paper really quickly!

EXCELLENT PARTNERSHIP

WOW! The year 2022 was incredibly eventful on our common journey. Our projects are becoming more and more popular - we received the internationally recognised Red Dot Award for our joint project MOLOTOW™ SKETCHER and Schneider Paint-It 040 Twin marker - not only as "Innovative Product", but also in the category "Best of the Best". This award is only given to products that convince and impress experts due to their outstanding design quality. So we are rightly proud of our development - but that is not all.

The creative markers from Schneider's "Makers Line", which we launched in collaboration with MOLOTOW™, has also been awarded for excellence in branding in the category - Excellent Brands-Office & Stationery. We were able to win the German Brand Award 2022 and are pleased to be able to present the motto - "Makers' minds cannot be tamed. We can only set them free!". We are motivated to carry this slogan into the world. We are particularly excited about the upcoming novelties and innovations. But there is no time to rest - we will work at full speed on the further development of the partnership and are already focusing on the next upcoming projects.

Growing Schneider-Community

Like, share, comment: More and more people share their enthusiasm for Schneider products.

What does Schneider do for more sustainability? Who works with the products? What can you do with the writing instruments? Answers to these questions are provided by Schneider's further expanded social media presences in the area of "Write & Mark" on Instagram, Facebook and YouTube. The active dialogue with the fans is rewarded with a constantly growing community. And there is also news about the Makers Line: The new website rebelliously defies conventions and opens up a creative playground for DIY fans all over the world.

#theschneiderway: sustainability in practice

Whether it's a rubbish collection campaign, a mobile phone donation or a bee project: That's how we at Schneider are committed to nature.

Sustainability is not a goal we have to achieve, but a path we are committed to take. We think sustainably and take decisions regarding our production responsibly and with awareness – but there is always more that can be done! At Schneider, we are also committed to protecting species and the environment beyond our products. For example, a Schneider team participated in the "Black Forest CleanUp Days 2022" and our apprentices started a project for wild bee hotels. There was also a collection campaign for old smartphones and tablets: For every mobile phone collected, a fixed amount goes to the Pro Wildlife ape conservation programme to save endangered species such as gorillas and chimpanzees.

Annual winner at markt intern

Not only did we defend last year's 1st place with aplomb, we even did better in the overall evaluation: Schneider has once again been voted performance winner in the "Writing Instruments" category by the German office supplies trade in 2022.

Nomination for the Environmental Award

The Environmental Award for Companies of the State of Baden-Württemberg will be awarded for the 20th time in 2022: Schneider is among the nominated finalists.
